Review Highlights - After a "day in the Sierras", truck on over to the "rustic", "woody" Truckee Hotel and "hang out for a bite" of "super" contemporary American fare with a Californian focus suggest admirers; the 1950s-style "wood bar and club setting" is "perfect" for "long talks over drinks" and listening to "wonderful" jazz in the lounge while the "hearty" "comfort food and gourmet" selections are "fresh and original" and delivered by an "experienced" crew.
